

Australian Government
Department of Veterans' Affairs

Why we remember

Celebration

We can describe a celebration as...

a happy event because something good happened.

There are many types of celebrations including:

Weddings

Sporting wins

We can describe a commemoration as...

a ceremony where a person or event is remembered.

Anzac Day and Remembrance Day

In Australia we commemorate Anzac Day in April and Remembrance Day in November.

What symbols do we use for Anzac Day and Remembrance Day?

Wreath

Rosemary

Medals

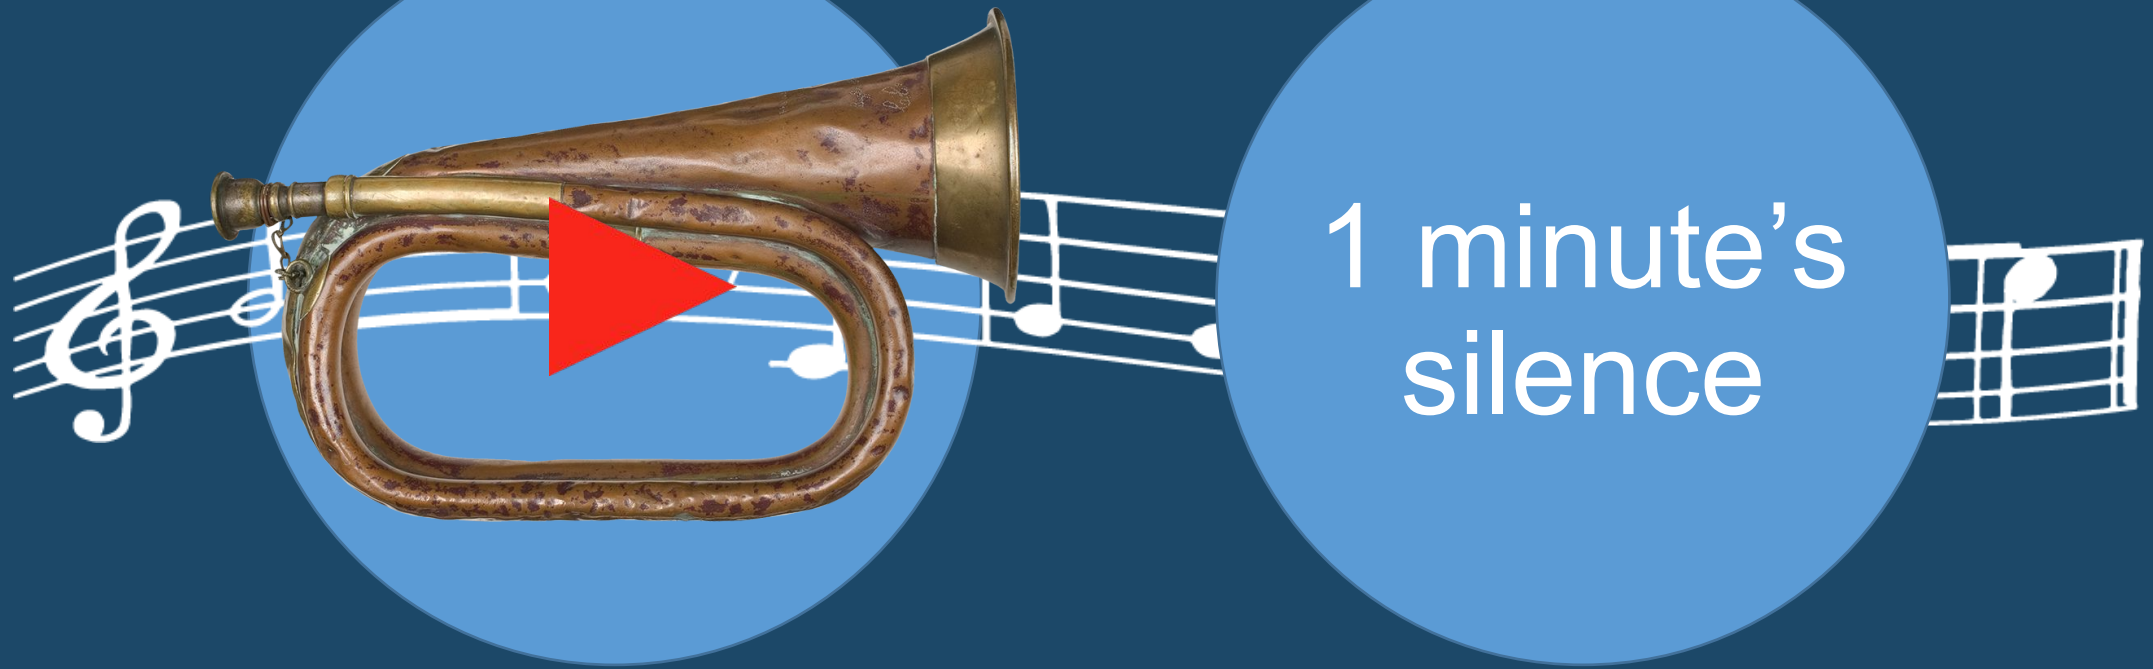

Memorials

Poppy

Sometimes we can hear a symbol

Why is a poppy an important symbol?

What can you see?

What can you see?

Compare these two pictures

Have you seen a memorial like this?

Imagine you are at a commemorative service

Who would be at the service?

What would you see, hear and do at the service?

